Dear Sir: -

I am having some difficulty with an Insurance company about the value of three Russian silver rubles that were stolen from my home along with other things. One was dated 1809 the other 1812 and the third was a jubilee ruble issued the year of the 300th anniversary of the rule of the Romanoffs.

The Insurance Company offered me

$4.50 for these three rubles. I should appreciate very much your opinion on the value of these coins.

Yours truly
M. Berman
